

Drivin

Willow Avalon

I remember your eyes of blue, they saw right through my soul
The way you say my name, it always leaves me wanting more
But you took your time, you wasted mine leading me on Saying you couldn't be, couldn't be with just one

So, I'm drivin' down the highway, thinking of you, babe
Smoking menthols to ease my brain, yeah
I'm drivin' down the highway, thinking of you, babe
Smoking menthols to ease my brain

I remember your lips, so soft, so sweet like cherry wine
The way you run your hands down the inside of my thighs
Sends chills down my spine
Makes me want you more and more each time

So, I'm drivin' down the highway, thinking of you, babe
Smoking menthols to ease my brain, yeah
I'm drivin' down the highway, thinking of you, babe
Smoking menthols to ease my brain

My brain...

My brain...
