

Silver Spoons

Willow Avalon

The famous ones
They teach em young
Don't have to work too hard
To be someone
Silver spoons ain't news to you

And I loved him so
But now I know
If this is how it is
I'd rather be alone
The bills are paid
But the love is overdue

He said he owns this town
But no amount of money
Can trick my heart to sticking around
Cause mama raised a tough girl
And daddy finally seems to be proud
Yeah, soon I'll own this town
Yeah, soon I'll own this

I was raised down south
Loves the currency
My mama taught me well about the birds and bees
That's why love means the world to me

He's so different
It was how he was raised
He means well
But it all feels staged
Maybe one day
His heart will change

But he said he owns this town
But no amount of money
Can trick my heart into sticking around
Mama raised a tough girl
And daddy finally seems to be proud
Yeah, soon I'll own this town
Yeah, soon I'll own this town

But he said he owns this town
But no amount of money
Can trick my heart to sticking around
Cause mama raised a tough girl
And daddy finally seems to be proud
Yeah, soon I'll own this town
Yeah, soon I'll own this town