

Want Me Now

Willow Avalon

Spent last night crying in our booth
At the local dive where we played pool
The jukebox played those folsom blues
Went home with a man wished he was you
Guess three months was enough
To find out who you loved
Now you're calling me up

To say you want me but you had me
Said I haunt you now you can't forget me
You said you want me, you said you're ready
Now you can't have me got tired of waiting around
You said you're ready, you said you want me now
You said you want me now
Now
Now
You said you want me now

Summer swell beers by the lake
The falling leaves followed our mistakes
Outside the bar cold hands on my waist
You pulled me in like we hadn't lost a day
Said I'm your favorite kiss
The sweet taste of my lips

You said you you want me but you had me
You said I haunt you now you can't forget me
You said you want me, you said you're ready
Now you can't have me got tired of waiting around
You said you're ready, you said you want me now
You said you want me now
Now
Now
You said you want me now
Now
Now
You said you want me now

You said you you want me but you had me
You said I haunt you now you can't forget me
You said you want me, you said you're ready
Now you can't have me got tired of waiting around
You said you're ready, you said you want me now
You said you want me now
Now
Now
You said you want me now
Now
Now
You said you want me now
