

After You Cry

Willow

If you saw me
Would you want me?
If you're lonely
Would you call me?
Way you treat me
So appalling
Baby you can hit me later right
After you cry

I got a hundred million things
I gotta square away
I ain't slept in like a week
I ain't prepared today
And on top of it
There's ash inside my air today
And I speak before I think
I do it carelessly
Do you really wanna be something? (Do you?)
Do you ever think of me sometimes?
Do you ever even see the signs?
When they passing you by
After you cry

If you love me
If you hate me
Yeah, I know that
It won't change me
I'm the only one that is around when you call
You're the only one that is around when I fall
And you sit and think 'bout how we've been through it all
After you cry

If you saw me
Would you want me?
If you're lonely
Would you call me?
Way you treat me
So appalling
Baby you can hit me later right
After you cry

Ooh

After you cry
After you cry
After you cry
After you cry
After you cry
After you cry

After you cry
After you cry
After you cry
