

BATSHIT!

Willow

Holding hands while the world burns down around us
Can't pretend but I'm trying
So I tell myself, I tell myself
"It's fine, it's fine, everything's fine"
You're cute and you're funny, your hair looks nice
Your smile, the vibe, we kiss while you drive
This stinks
I'm smelling a lie

I thought I could but not today, not today, not today
It's not a game but you wanna play, you wanna play

Fuck, fine
I know you think what you're saying's really cute
But you're just wasting my time
And no, you're not on my mind

If I were you, I would watch out
Whatever you do, it better be true, I'm coming for you
I'm washing out your mouth
Whatever you do, it better be true, it better be true

Yeah, I thought I could
But it turns out
Yeah, it turns out my mental wasn't strong enough
To face the facts and not clap back
And all the while, you watch her ass
Walk through my heart and down the backstreet
Yeah, you think I'm cool? Try batshit
Murdering my ego with a hatchet, yeah
You'll never understand

Fuck, fine
I know you think what you're saying's really cute
But you're just wasting my time
And no, you're not on my mind

If I were you, I would watch out
Whatever you do, it better be true, I'm coming for you
I'm washing out your mouth
Whatever you do, it better be true, it better be true
