

Falling Endlessly

Willow

Your friends are coming over now
Never liked them, never did and now I cannot be sober
Fuck the small talk, chattin' sitting down
Shallowness is like a poison crown
I cannot get over all this shit and now

I'm falling endlessly
Look at my face, tell me
Who do you think's more insane, you or I?

Don't wanna get up now
It's still the same, every day
Lose myself and just fuck around
It's an escape, yeah, it's a shame
I don't wanna get up now
Don't wanna get up now

Your friends are coming over now
I couldn't hold it in, the secret's out
You don't wanna hear it but I think it's fuckin' time about
You know I care even though you're not here
The truth is unfair and so am I

I'm falling endlessly
Look at my face, tell me
Who do you think's more insane, you or I?
(We'll let the moment decide)

Don't wanna get up now
It's still the same, every day
Lose myself and just fuck around
It's an escape, yeah, it's a shame
I don't wanna get up now
Don't wanna get up now

I'm falling endlessly
Wondering, wandering
I'm falling endlessly, ah
I'm falling, ah

Don't wanna get up now
It's still the same, every day
Lose myself and just fuck around
It's an escape, yeah, it's a shame
I don't wanna get up now
Don't wanna get up now
