

Need To Know

Willow

Your body is like a blanket
That falls swiftly around me
Your love, I cannot take it
Sometimes I feel my heart ripping and I'm frowning
But I wanna know
Yes, I wanna know
Why is my mind so desperate?
Yes, I wanna know
Yes, I have to know
My heart don't get it

Ah, I need to know
Ah, I need to know

My mind is like a prison
Cold, circling around me
I travel in all directions
Only to find myself in the same place still standing
I wanna know, I have to know
How do I reverse this?
I wanna know, I need to know
How do I transcend this?

How do you? How?
How do you transcend?
How do you make friends?
(I need to know)

How? How do you?
How do you transcend?
(I need to know)
