

PURGE

Willow

I like to ignore all the pain
I can't take it
The darkness, it melts it away
Blankets of snow, yeah the numbness can stay
I can't feel anything anymore anyway

Purge you can't take it away
Purge you can't take it from me

Sink into the dark
I can't seem to find myself
I tried to come back but it's so hard

I don't know the truth anymore
Perspective shattered to the floor
Fuckin' up like most of the time
Coming to terms with all of my lies
Not taking advice (I don't really wanna know)
Trying to find my way to the light
Through traps in my mind, it's gonna be fine
It's gonna be fine

Purge you can't take it away
Purge you can't take it from me

Sink into the dark
I can't seem to find myself
I tried to come back but it's so hard

Oh the abyss fallin' quick, purging
Oh the abyss fallin' quick, purging

Purge you can't take it away
Purge you can't take it from me

Sink into the dark
I can't seem to find myself
I tried to come back but it's so hard
