

The Intro

Willow

Falling deep, into the sea
You don't even know my name
I look at you, you look at me
And we both know it's not a game

I'll take the lead
I'll take the lead
And we
We dance and sing
I'll take the lead

Melodic Chaotic times
They catch it
My eyes blink faster than the lightning, and I think
You should carry me, I believe, I

I believe in us
And I
I can smell your entity
From here
