

I don't mean to break so easily under the pressure
Need some time alone to breathe, I need some tree and fresh air
Whoa
I'ma need to switch up on the game like, whoa
PCH cruisin', got the pedal to the floor
If I pull up then you know it's true
You don't make the same effort when I'm tryna see you
'Cause this ain't workin' out like a hundred-pound bench press
It might get me down, but it's in my best interest
'Cause honestly

I don't mean to break so easily under the pressure
Need some time alone to breathe, I need some tree and fresh air
I'ma need to put you aside
Felt this way for a long time
Miss me with the fake apologies, you're being extra

My heart is heavy, I thought I was ready, I wasn't prepared
You didn't care, you knew I was scared, you still right there
I needed a chair, I needed your love, your urgent care
I'm overwhelmed, it's too much
I ain't seen yo ass in two months
You break everything that you touch
Make me wanna throw my food up
Man, you really went and fucked my mood up
You got me chopped and screwed up
Now you dead to me, so suit up
Your new girl wig look all chewed up
Now who got beef, nigga, who what
Now who got beef, nigga, mm-mm-mm
You know I had anxiety
Why would you go and just lie to me
I'm that bitch when I gotta be Independent, ain't no signing me
Too gone, ain't no sign of me
Got me wanting to end my sobriety
I ain't gon' end my sobriety
I'm okay now, I just needed some time
I'm okay now, I just needed some time
I'm okay now, I just needed some time
I'm okay now, I'm okay

I don't mean to break so easily under the pressure
Need some time alone to breathe, I need some tree and fresh air
I'ma need to put you aside
Felt this way for a long time
Miss me with the fake apologies, you're being extra
