

The Fourth Vanguard

Wind Rose

Before their arrival
Before nightmares become true
Moving with sorrow
The IV Vanguard still blazes

The dark hand is not here
We cannot feel any motion around

So keep going forward
We'll believe it once again!

These twenty years spent by your side
All goes beneath while you're alive

To bleed, to cry, to close my eyes
Emotions fed by sense of lie

Wait some day then you will understand

Victorious
Or these dreams become steel
Or the fate will rule everything
To the unknown

Victorious
Let the Vanguards return
On the guardians of destiny
We rely

I've been walking for too long
But without the presence of your cold

Days slowly are passing by
Will you now defeat all of my cries?

I'll reach up my aim
I'll burn out your soul

No tale and no melody
Could remind your crown

For thousand days, for all respites
You should believe there was no night

Spread your glow, my guiding light
Then drive me down the path he ride

When you find me it will be too late

Victorious
Or these dreams become steel
Or the fate will rule everything
To the unknown

Victorious
Let the Vanguards return
On the guardians of destiny

We rely

Victorious
Or these dreams become steel
Or the fate will rule everything
To the unknown

Victorious
Let the Vanguards return
On the guardians of destiny
We rely now
