

I can't comprehend all my past mistakes
But I swear in the end I'll set this straight
No matter the outcome my heart's engraved with the memories

I know that times against me but I won't fear what lies ahead
Through the thick and the thin
Through the pain and the sins
I swear I have it within me

To be all I can
I don't know the meaning of failure
When it's all said and done our hearts, they beat as one
Our hearts beat as one
With a steady pulse we can overcome these feelings inside we sh are until the day we die
Until the day we die
Until the day we fucking die!

(Until the day we die)
(Until the day we die)
