

Be As One

Winds

I'm always thinking at any time, even on days when we can't meet, EVERYTIME I FEEL AH my HEART AND SOUL wrapped in the warm palms of your hands

Where are you when you haven't left me?
When I met you by chance and saw your casual kindness,
I wanted to embrace you

I WILL --BE AS ONE- I want to protect you STAY WITH ME I love you YES YOU My beloved person I'll tell you my overflowing thoughts without hiding
them

You're a miracle I only met once Just like the stars which shine together and like the raindrops which eventually fall into the sea Let's come together LOVE You are my everything

Even for tiny instances when we cross paths without meeting NEVER CRY I'm sure we'll open our hearts AH I'll come here and listen to the dreams you hold and the continuation to the book you were reading SAY When we collect small things about each other we didn't yet know about, the bonds we have between us will strengthen

Now --BE AS ONE- I want to try believing
That there is such a thing as an everlasting love
Let's etch ourselves into each other
In this destiny which we won't regret
Bring our hands together and feel each other's warmth and feel the peacefulness born from each other's gaze
That is eternity ONLY SHINE Because we realize

Whether spring, summer, autumn and winter, I want to set your many smiling faces Into one of the world's stories and tell it one day

I WILL --BE AS ONE- I want to protect you STAY WITH ME I love you...
I'll tell you my overflowing thoughts without hiding

Now --BE AS ONE- I want to try believing
That there is such a thing as an everlasting love
Let's etch ourselves into each other
In this destiny which we won't regret
Bring our hands together and feel each other's warmth
and feel the peacefulness born from each other's gaze
That is eternity ONLY SHINE Because we realize
