

Arrested

Windwaker

Let's go

I've been waiting my whole fucking life for you to be the same
But you've gone and left
You've fucking gone and left me in a world you won't miss
Its been one hell of a ride but I just can't see the light
No longer
Rub my head
It's time to let it go

Warning signs paint my skies
Warning signs flood my eyes
Warning signs are all I see
From dusk till dawn, surrounding me

Bite my tongue, eyes open
Body's numb, past frozen
I've fallen, from my past
Reflection is the fate

And I've been waiting my whole fucking life for you to say
You never truly loved me
And I don't think that we can be friends
And it's on and all and everything you wanted to be
Never to blame yourself for the person you see

Teardrops
Find your way back home

Warning signs paint my skies
Warning signs flood my eyes
Warning signs are all I see
From dusk till dawn, surrounding me

Meet me in the middle
How hard can it be?
I always play the devil it's all it seems to me

Careful and I'm going home
Running back to what we know
I didn't see the pain
These are the tears that fucking made
All I've made

How long has it been?
Here we go again

I bite my tongue
How long has it been?
Here we go again

Warning signs paint my skies
Warning signs flood my eyes
Warning signs now I see
I'll give this up, to save me, to save me
(Save me)

I never thought it would go down like this
This story has been poetry
Torn right out of a movie scene
Can't let go of memories

And with myself and this state of mind
I dress myself and leave it all behind
I'll go out with one last plead
My love for you gave way to me
