

Hypnotised

Windwaker

5:30 on a Tuesday
Thinking I don't got the time for your roommate's new thing
We could do this on a new day
'Cause when shit falls through like a loose J, too late
I don't wanna begin to lie to ya
I'm hypnotised, losing, I tip my mind to you, huh
I don't wanna see our demise
Misery speaks with the clouds inside
Left on read, you don't like me?
Was it something I said and meant lightly?
Now it's quiet, my co-pilot
Never want you to break, but please break silence
My life with you is a work of art
The miracle of you here, I'm never left in the dark
Prime time rhythm, baby, lose your mind
Talk in the morning, it'll all be fine
Prime time rhythm, baby, lose your mind
Talk in the morning, it'll all be fine

But when you think you're safe now
Another stain on your glass
So you should take chance now
And let the movement take control

You're on my, you're on my mind
Going through life indifferent
Don't close my, don't close my eyes
Don't wanna forget I was used to you

I don't wanna forget the past
I don't wanna forget the past
I don't wanna forget the past
I don't want to be distant from you
I'm addicted to you, I'm insistent on you
'Cause we pick the same moves
And we ticked the same boxes
I don't see no other option

You can run the whole town
Ain't nobody stopping you
Feelin' hellas good, no doubt
Got my body lost in you
Hope I didn't let you down
I can make it up to you
The way you're moving to the sound
Got me into you

But when you think you're safe now
Another stain on your glass
So you should take chance now
And let the movement take control

You're on my, you're on my mind
Going through life indifferent
Don't close my, don't close my eyes
Don't wanna forget I was used to you

Am I resigned to die from the same mistakes?
Don't want to try and survive what the blame creates
Am I resigned to die?

You're on my, you're on my mind
Going through life indifferent
Don't close my, don't close my eyes
Don't wanna forget I was used to you
You're on my, you're on my mind
Going through life indifferent
Don't close my, don't close my eyes
Don't wanna forget I was used to you
