

How do we keep going on?
Destroy ourselves before the other does
The funny little things keep piling up
On top of us, so long ago, I lost your touch
I'm giving up
I'm giving up

Why, oh, why is it so right?
Our fate to reap what I desire
I'll get what I deserve

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
You wait so long but then all they do is walk away
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
You break so much when the one you want just walks away

Let me catch you up
I've been living in my bubble
Don't know if this could be love
I feel like this could lead to trouble
But we live life hard
We don't need to waste no time
So we keep it going
Just to reap what we desire

Don't wanna break
But I can't get better
I feel the vines getting tight around me
Don't wanna run
'Cause it might get better
I just can't stand the sight of me

Yeah
Come on, come on, come on
Oh
Don't wanna run, but
You're so far when you walk away

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
You wait so long but then all they do is walk away
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
You broke so much of the world
And every day has been a open scar
You're not a star
I know who you are
And now you always seem so troubled
Don't know who loves you
But you're so far when you just walk away

I just get so stuck
I'll never be enough to walk away
Questioning my luck
I don't know how to love, just walk away

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
You wait so long but then all they do is walk away

You broke so much of the world
Every day has been a open scar
You're not a star
I know who you are
And now you always seem so troubled

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
