

When you found me, I was low and cascading
Pouring out the promise I was worth saving
Was I?

When motivation is an unlocked path, secured
I don't know if I can open up the door
I can't
Without you, I am floored

I guess there's no going back
Guess there's no going back
I guess there's no going
Back

And none of it matters
None of it matters at all
None of it matters
None of it matters at all
Oh, oh
I guess there's no going back

'Cause none of it matters
None of it matters at all
None of it matters
None of it matters at all
Oh, oh

Guess there's no going back
I guess there's no going back

I just get so stuck
I'll never be enough
To walk away
Questioning my luck
Don't know how to love
Just walk away
