

Silver Linings

Windwaker

I am sorry that if it's always the like - "Oh no, everything to do with me is terrible show", but like, everybody's the main character of their own movies, and I don't mean to make other main characters my side characters, but like, that's kinda... that's how everything kinda feels. Just I, hmm. I got... I don't have any fuel left in the tank. So, I gotta find some fuel and then I'll put some fuel in the tank and then maybe the machine will run a little bit better. And um, I know everyone's doing that but it's what I'm doing. And I love you, and umm, I'mma be better soon, love you. Sorry!
