

The Point of No Return

Wine From Tears

In my little dreams
I pretend..
That we're happy again
But it never was..

Thanks for hole in my soul..

Everything that I learned
About this world..
All mistakes which I
Could avoid
I learned not from you

And now it's time to say!

This is the last drop
And the point of no return
I'm an empty space for you
That's why I hate you all

This is the last drop
And the point of no return
I'm burden kid for you
I hate you all..

You're so busy again
Oh, come on..
I need a little care
Do I ask so much..?

I'm so tired to be up against the wall!!

Even if I'll be gone
I suppose..
It will be a sigh of relief
You'll not notice at once..

Thanks for every lost year.....
