

Heaven's Falling

Winger

If you believed the truth in me
Would this all have gone wrong
Can we survive all that's been said and done
Or has the end just begun?

Heaven's falling
The blue night's calling
The world of us fading away
Hearts are breaking
The earth is shaking
I'm holding on to yesterday

How can two hearts beat as one
But never see eye to eye?
If we could get ourselves to higher ground
We wouldn't watch each other drown

Heaven's falling
The blue night's calling
The world of us fading away
Hearts are breaking
The earth is shaking
I'm holding on to yesterday

I'll never let go
Every cell of my soul
Knows that you and I are one

We are sinking in this rising tide
And I will always wonder why

Heaven's falling
The blue night's calling
The world of us fading away
Hearts are breaking
The earth is shaking
I'm holding on to yesterday

Heaven's falling
The blue night's calling
The world of us fading away
Hearts are breaking
The earth is shaking
And I'm holding on to yesterday

Girl, don't let go
Search your soul and you'll know
Baby, you and I are one
