

It's Okay

Winger

Take off the masque
Take off the gloves
Take off the armor that's so rough, rough, rough
Might need a blast
Of crazy love
Forget the past
Dig the signs from above

It's okay now, it's okay
Let your fear just float away
It's okay now, might seem strange
Let your whole world go insane

You try to dance
You're out of time
Dancing in circles like a nursery rhyme
Forgot the steps
Forgot the sound
You'll find your zen
When you break it all down

It's okay now, it's okay
Some things just can't be explained
It's okay now, might seem strange
Let your whole world go insane

Souls colliding
See what you wanna see
Just ride the lightning
'Cause we're all living in a dream
I know, though it don't show
There's another truth behind this illusion
Just ride the lightning
'Cause we're all living in a dream

No holding back
Just let it blow
I got your back
Just enjoy the show

Might seem extreme
You might get stung
Wake from the dream
Baby, we've just begun

It's okay now, it's okay
Let your fear just float away
It's okay now, might seem strange
Let your whole world go insane

Souls colliding
See what you wanna see
Nothing is what it seems
I know, though it don't show

Just ride the lightning

Souls colliding

Souls colliding
'Cause we're all living in a dream
Nothing's what it seems

Just ride the lightning
