

Only Love

Winger

Like the stars at midnight
Living through the ages
We are a lonely world
Living empty pages

So if you hear her crying
For your ghost of love
It's to yourself you're lying

When you find you're all on your own
Nothing else will make us
Only love can take us there
Nothing else can change us
Only love can make us
Only love

Though you may never see her
Yeah, she's talking to you
Asking you to free her
She's meaning to break through

So if you see her crying
For your ghost of love
It's to yourself you're lying

If you find you're all on your own
Nothing else will make us
Only love can take us there
It's only love
Nothing else can change us
Only love can make us
Only love

Nothing else will make us
Only love can take us there
Only love
Nothing else can change us
Only love can make us
It's only love
Nothing else will make us
Only love can take us there
Only love
Nothing else can change us
Only love can make us
Man, it's only love
Only love
