

Someday Someway

Winger

Far away, I hear you crying
Helplessly
Over here, I feel like dying
It's not getting easier
The time I've spent in silent eyes
Has left me blind

Took everything
Except for the memory
Forcing in sunlight

All I have is your photograph
It's not enough
Always leaves me
Dreaming of someday
Someday I know, I'll see you again
Someday someday
Baby I know this ain't the end

I vow to heal your precious heart
And dry your tears
Have faith in me baby, I would never
Take you for granted

All I have is your photograph
It's not enough
Always leaves me
Dreaming of someday
Someday I know, I'll see you again
Someday someday
Baby I know this ain't the end

All I have is your photograph
It's not enough
It always leaves me dreaming of someday
Someday I know, I'll see you again
Someday someday
Baby I know this ain't the end

This ain't the end
