

TALK

Winona Fighter

Know it all, you know it all like nobody does
It's really, fucking funny how your stories get spun
Know it all, you know it all like I never could Seems like you know about me more than I ever would

You're so ambitious (Hey, hey, hey, hey)
Oh, no forgiveness

Talk all you want
Talk all you want
Say it's all with good intention
It sure got my attention
Talk all the talk that you wanna
Right to my face, 'cause I wanna play
Don't cower now, say what you're gonna
Look me in the eye 'cause I'm gonna make you anyway

Artist like you always acting a saint
The devils in all the pictures you paint
Didn't hear you, repeat it again
Just from out behind my back, and straight to my head

You're so ambitious (Hey, hey, hey, hey)
Oh, no forgiveness

Talk all you want
Talk all you want
Say it's all with good intention
It sure got my attention
Talk all the talk that you wanna
Right to my face, 'cause I wanna play
Don't cower now, say what you're gonna
Look me in the eye 'cause I'm gonna make you anyway

Talk, talk, talk
Blah, blah, blah
Talk, talk, talk
Talk, talk, talk

Talk all you want
Talk all you want
Talk all you want
Talk all you want
Say it's all with good intention
It sure got my attention
Talk all the talk that you wanna
Right to my face, 'cause I wanna play
Don't cower now, say what you're gonna
Look me in the eye 'cause I'm gonna make you anyway

Tell me all your lies 'cause I won't believe 'em anyway
