

When You're Ready

Winston Surfshirt

I got the key, you got the hole
Open it up and I knockin' this door
Ready or not, sayin' "Here I come", yeah
Imma be the one standin' under this phone
So open up, I'm comin' in
A stunner as, you know you is
I promised you a promise
This is honest that's your problem
So much for payphones
Where is that?
It's in the back
Quick stack
Ya seen ya patience
Livin' to save us
Don't need a reason
Whatever you say boss

I know, when you're ready
When you're, when
When you're, when I enter
Be this death of me you dread
You don't, think I'm going
I dunno, I wasn't ready for someone to follow

I cannot hold you
I can see, right through you, know I
Want ya to be in my arms
Why are they ringin' alarms?
Sending unneeded subliminal qualms
Hopelessness is hopin'
You don't leave, plantin' the seeds
That don't need me
Indubitably
Even the tree can grow in the sea
So why you steppin on things you bring
Your two left foots that needs a swing
Put a smile on your dial
Fine for a while
Stitchin' time can save mine
I release to your choice to pander
Sauce for the geese is sauce for the gander

I know, when you're ready
When you're, when
When you're, when I enter
Be this death of me you dread
You don't, think I'm going
I dunno, I wasn't ready for someone to follow

I know, when you're ready
You don't, think I'm going

I know, when you're ready

When you're, when
You don't, think I'm going
