

Where Did All Your Love Go?

Winston Surfshirt

Don't be stupid
Wishing you were suited
If only I could tell her
I already fell

Sedated in sway
She had me at "hey"
Sending a lotta different signals my way
So confusing
I was scared of us defusing
Susceptible for me to go
Where you were keeping glowing

I got in the zone
I thought I should be
Mistaking her just being friendly with me

I got in the zone
I thought I should be
Mistaking her just being friendly with me

Keep on swerving all my questions
Devoid of all affection
But if you're talking to me
I'll never be leaving
You make it so easy
We all have our doubts
If you don't block 'em out
You never will need me

Where did all your love go?
I would be your chauffeur
Come and get in
I can make a home
So we could get a sofa
We could sit in

Sedated in sway
She had me at "hey"
Sending a lotta different signals my way
So confused when I could see myself
That having you was more to me than health

(Where did all your love...)
Where did all your love go?
I can't wait to get old
I'm just making it told
(Started with a note)
I didn't need to say much
(Just saying hello)
It ain't for me to say so
Just wondered, where did it go?
(Where did all your...)

But if you're walking to me
I won't ever be leaving
You make it look easy

We all have our doubts
But there's something about
The way you don't need me

Where did all your love go?
I would be your chauffeur
Come and get in
I can make a home
So we could get a sofa
We could sit in

Where did all your love go?
I would be your chauffeur
Come and get in
I can make a home
So we could get a sofa
We could sit in

Where did all your love go?
(Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?)
Where did all your love go?
(Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?)
Where did all your love go?
(Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?
Where did all your love go?)
