

Dancing at the party
Like you weren't invited
In and out of time
Make out in the hallways
Of your former feelings
Are you in your mind?
Are you in your mind?

Fall through the sky
I don't know why
In, out of time
I don't know why

Shake hands with the future
Of your former self
I can't read your mind
Fingers on the ladder
Loosen up your tie
Are you in your mind?
Are you in your mind?

Fall through the sky
I don't know why
Fall through the ground
What have you found?

Fall through the sky
I don't know why
No one around to catch it
You live, then you die
No reasoning why
Only the sound of your heart
Resounding, surrounding
Resounding, surrounding
Resounding, surrounding
Resound

Are you in your mind?
Have you found it?
Have you found it?
Crawling out your spine
