

Waves

Wintersleep

Maybe I'll
I'll move to the countryside
That little French town
I've had in my mind's eye

Where the waves unspeakably speak
Where the days spill so violent and free

I'm a freak here
I'm a freak here
I'm a freak here

Comes a time
I'll move away from the city lights
It'll swallow us whole
And leave me to die

Where the waves unspeakably speak
Where the days spill so violent and free

I'm a freak here
I'm a freak here
I'm a freak here
