

I walked by your house
I walked by your house
To kiss your makeup off, but I'm not allowed
Where we started from
Where we started from
Vapor through the zones of alienation

Got my mind caught up in your open neck
In your empty room, your metropolis
Let your shadows shout, let your scars shine out
'Till we're out of breath, 'till there is no sound

L-o-v-e, I love you
Why can't you be in my arms today?
In my arms today
Call out until I come to the place we started from
L-o-v-e, I love you
Why can't you be in my arms today?
In my arms today
Call out 'till it gets dumb, to the place we started from

'Cause my mind's made up, it's an empty threat
In your open arms, there's no hostages
What we could have done, what we might have been
Is a subject of no significance

L-o-v-e, I love you
Why can't you be in my arms today?
In my arms today
Call out until I come to the place we started from
L-o-v-e, I love you
Why can't you be in my arms today?
In my arms today
Call out 'till it gets dumb, to the place we started from