

Calm down, keep it in your head
Like all those ghosts underneath your bed
It spills out, sinking through the floor
I raise my hand while you close the door

I know you wanna feel
Tell me you wanna feel
Won't you try and save me?

Speak up, I'm drowning in
All of those lies, they're paper-thin
Deep breath before you fall
I've been listening out, I'm waiting for your call

I know you wanna feel
Tell me you wanna feel
Won't you try and save me?

I don't know what I've been doing
Hoping things will just keep moving
Keep me at an awful distance
Hope you keep up your persistence

I know you wanna feel
Tell me that you want to feel
Won't you try and save me?
(Try and save me)

I don't know what I've been doing
Hoping things will just keep moving
Keep me at an awful distance
Hope you keep up your persistence
