

Long Night

With Confidence

Won't you turn around and please look at me
For everything we are, everything we've been?
I promise I'll be good if you stay with me

But everything we are it just went away
With a slight of a tongue and a sour taste
I cannot recall I can't explain

But I remember the nights when you'd lie with me
When we'd talk and we'd touch and we'd fall asleep
I'd wake up in your arms and I'd feel at ease

It's gonna be a long night

I still have your shirt in my dresser drawer
The one with the stripes that you liked in store
But everything has changed, I wanted more

Oh how it's raining
Oh how the water falls
Into the safe things
We tried to set in stone
I can't replace you
I can't escape you now

But I remember the nights when you'd lie with me
When we'd talk and we'd touch and we'd fall asleep
I'd wake up in your arms and I'd feel at ease
But now it's just me and I lie awake
And I toss and I turn and I see your face
When I wake from a dream it won't go away

Oh, it's gonna be a long night

But I remember the nights when you'd lie with me
When we'd talk and we'd touch and we'd fall asleep
I'd wake up in your arms and I'd feel at ease
But now it's just me and I lie awake
And I toss and I turn and I see your face
When I wake from a dream it won't go away

Oh, it's gonna be a long night
