

Take Me Away

With Confidence

What you want, what you got
You could never find it
Never fought, never sought it
You could never guide it
Kill the time, kill your mind and
You could never find truth
And all along, all along
It's you, it's you, it's you

Take me away
If only for a day
Take me away
If only for a day

Got a plan, got a pen
Go and say it
Got a chance to begin
Go and take it
Yeah the waves are coming
And you're ready now
Now you know the want
And you want the got
And you got the go
Watch it push you now
Feel the waves are crashing
Let it wash you out
And let it break you down

Take me away
No if only for a day
Take me away
No if only for a day

This cold night dreaming's not enough
Won't be the boy forever lost
We need to break away
We need to break away

Take me away
No if only for a day
Take me away
No if only for a day

(A day, a day, a day)
Take me away
No if only for a day
(A day, a day, a day)
Take me away
No if only for a day
(A day, a day, a day)

Take me away
No if only for a day
