Within Destruction

Why do you hesitate to spill your own blood
When this will save you from yourself
Would you rather become another slave
Or would you rather fly away?
This pillars of hatred are now too strong
The fusion with your heart has begun

Let me save you from yourself
I'll make you wings from your flesh
Abandon the essence of life
Consume my fire the failure of heart

Let me save you from yourself

Would you call this poison or would you call this cure
Snake pit grows inside your heart
Abomination crawls through your veins
Control is lost leaving you nameless

Let me save you from yourself
I'll make you wings from your flesh
Abandon the essence of life
Consume my fire the failure of heart
