CYBERGIRL

Within Destruction

Binary breeze and neon lights
Quantum data, a soul made out of bytes

Took away all the hurt that I felt inside
Washed away into me
Is it all okay?
Is it all okay?

She surfs the waves of the matrix sea
My cybergirl – wild and free
She is the queen of her digital world
My cybergirl – a pixelated twirl

I can see her smile, she's grinning ear to ear
I can hear her calling, there's nothing left to fear
Cybergirl
Living in a digital world

Binary breeze and neon lights
My cybergirl, a soul made out of bytes

'Cause I told you that I'm fading
Don't you wait for me, I'm not staying
I can't pretend this is alright
I can't pretend, I'm lost inside my mind

Is this fiction or reality
When I don't even question mortality
Can you believe just for tonight? (Just for tonight)
Can I pretend, is this alright?

She's my cybergirl
Lost in a digital world
Cybergirl

Binary breeze and neon lights
My cybergirl, a soul made out of bytes

'Cause I told you that I'm fading
Don't you wait for me, I'm not staying
I can't pretend this is alright
I can't pretend, I'm lost inside my mind

'Cause I'm caving
So incinerate me
You're intoxicating
I can't pretend
I can't pretend

Binary breeze and neon lights
My cybergirl, a soul made out of bytes
Electric dreams and her virtual curls
Cause a glitch in my heart, my cybergirl
