

Ethereal Wrath

Within Destruction

My flesh turned into decaying gold
My blood rotting away day by day
You will bow down to the Blade of Miquella
You'll suffer my curse and accept your defeat
Decapitation, mutilation
Your body will bleed

Your violation of my sacred domain is unforgivable
You've paid with your blood
Suffer my ethereal wrath
You've undermined me for the last time

As consciousness slips away
You're counting the seconds before you will decay
I watch you crawl as life flashes before your dying eyes
Before your mortal eyes
I slit your throat

Your blood will nourish this barren soil
On which I will spread my wings of corruption

Witness the birth of a god of a coming age
Putrefaction of our flesh and bone
Putrefaction of flesh and bone

I will be the end
I'll be the torture and suffering in your veins
I'll be the curse of your final demise
This is the blooming of the Scarlet Rot

This is the end of all creation
Rain pours down, still I feel my degradation
I cannot believe this is what I've become I'm rotting within

So, this is my destiny
Murder, slaughter, kill, repeat
This is what I crave for
This is all I need

As consciousness slips away
You're counting the seconds before you will decay
I watch you crawl as life flashes before your dying eyes
Before your mortal eyes

Devoured by the Scarlet Rot
