

This Misery

Within Destruction

Why must I carry
This burden in my chest
It fills my mind
With sentiments
Memories that blur my mind
I don't need this
For the brightest soul
Gives no heat
Gives no beat

Cut me now
Set me free
Undo this misery
Inside of me

So come on
Open me
Take out
This blasphemy

Flesh and blood shall be spilled
Veins will cry tears of joy
Light fades out of my eyes
A gory shadow is left belove

I can hear you call my name
That cold breeze around my neck
Sending shivers down my spine
You're embracing me with love

Cut me now
Set me free
Undo this misery
Inside of me

So come on
Open me
Take out
This blasphemy

Now I see with my own eyes
This world is to much to bare
It has so little to obtain
There 's not much more to gain

I can hear you call my name
That cold breeze around my neck
Sending shivers down my spine
You're embracing me with love
