

TORMENT

Within Destruction

A tragic tale unfolds and broken dreams are here to stay
The voices in my head whisper, "You're not okay"
Is this just my delusion, is this my fantasy?
All I ever wanted was some chaos in harmony
All I needed was chaos

Tell me is it okay that I just feel this way?
It's tormenting my head every day
It's killing you, it's killing me
You know it's killing me

I tread this path alone where echoes fade away
Close my eyes, it's like I'm always betrayed
The weight of my gloom feels like a crushing embrace
I'm sealed in my realm
Where tears don't leave a fucking trace

Sealed away
I'm always betrayed
I am all on my own

Tell me is it okay that I just feel this way?
It's tormenting my head every day
It's killing you, it's killing me
You know it's killing me

And when your friends turn into your enemies
Keep your back against the wall 'cause in the end
We're all alone
We're
We're all alone
Don't close your eyes
We're all on our own

Don't close your eyes
All I need is Always betrayed
Chaos

Tell me is it okay that I just feel this way?
It's tormenting my head every day
It's killing you, it's killing me
You know it's killing me
