

Absolution

Within the Ruins

You'll never know unless you survive
You'll never know unless you survive, believe in me as I believe in you
These feelings are mutual
Take the plunge, because this is absolution
The absolution of negativity
No longer will we be casualties
To an unrelenting world
Replenish your resolve
Let life pour from your eyes
Rejuvenate, rejuvenate
Let strike fall by the wayside rejuvenate, rejuvenate
You'll never know unless you survive
Let life pour from your eyes
Rejuvenate, rejuvenate
Let strike fall by the wayside
Rejuvenate, rejuvenate
You'll never know unless you survive

Believe in me as I believe in you
These feelings are mutual
Take the plunge, because this is the absolution
The air that you breathe is all that you need
All you could ever need
Be the current that carves the stone
With force with persistence
Be the heart that weathers the storm
With strength with resolve
Self doubt can plague you control you, subdue you, but we are the unbroken and this is our song
We are unbroken and this is our song
Let life pour from your eyes
Rejuvenate, rejuvenate
Let strife fall by the wayside rejuvenate, rejuvenate
