

Goodbye

Witt Lowry

When the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

Yeah, when the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

Yeah, I don't really know what to say
Since you left, I think it's been about 14 days
I'm still trying to figure out how your feelings just changed
And after everything we've been through, you could throw us away
Don't you remember how we used to kick it?
Last summer we would chill and stay up just to watch the Olympics
And now your telling me you feel something different
Well maybe that's why you got me feeling like you just been acting so distant
And all the warning signs, I must've missed it
Shame on me for letting myself get so in depth in it
Knew you were trouble right from the beginning, Taylor Swift shit
Remember when you made me that CD, but fuck it
I'm reminiscing bout nothing, thought we were something, we wasn't
I ain't gon' lie, I'm gonna miss all your cousins
But nothing is the same as it used to be
I called this shit to the tee now there'll never be a you and me

So, when the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

Yeah, when the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

And honestly "Wake up" should've been meaner
But you see, we were still together so the lyrics were cleaner
Your telling me you think the trust isn't there
Well maybe because you hooked up with my best friend when I wasn't there
I heard about how you bang dudes when you get blacked out drunk
So why the fuck would I trust you huh? I'm not dumb
I gave you so many chances and I ain't even get one

But fuck it, that shit don't matter cause were over and done
I really do wish you the best on every path that you step
Whether it's with a new guy or you go back to your ex
See I want you to know that I always gave you my best
And I was loyal to the end and didn't cheat like the rest of these dudes, no
I ain't saying I was perfect
I just thought that what we had was worth it, damn
Now I realize that you didn't
I thought that we could fix it
And all I got from you was sorry Mark and now I'm finished

So, when the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

Yeah, when the club lights fade
It's all of this ganja you've smoked it away
It's all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry
Don't worry, don't worry, don't worry I said I'll be fine
I'll be just fine, you just go on and keep living your life

See there was so much left unsaid when you left
And I ain't tryna bash, but this what happens when I vent
You see, I knew you'd be a ho just like all the fucking rest
And worst I knew it from the jump, Why'd I give that shit a test?
What I didn't smoke enough for you, didn't drink enough for you
Wasn't fun enough for you, wasn't good enough for you, damn
You play me like a yo-yo and shit
Well I am not the one to be yo-yo and Wit
You put that shit on me, then I watch you leave
Let you back in, you came back in and shit on me
Drag me along for a week, till my heart got weak
But honestly ending it was the best decision I think
Yeah, so when these club lights fade
And all of this ganja you've smoked it away
And all of this drinking just isn't the same
And finally you sit back and think about me
Don't worry, I said don't worry
I said I'll be fine, I'll be just fine
You just go on and keep living your life
Goodbye
