

Resolution

Witt Lowry

Honestly, I'm looking back on last year like how the fuck did this happen
Who would've thought this scrawny white kid from the burbs would be rapping
I'm laughing at the fact that last year you were probably laughing
And I was putting all my blood, sweat, and tears in my passion
Sometimes I stare up at the sky asking God if he'd take me
Sometimes I listen to my music asking why I'm so angry
Sometimes I see some of your comments asking why you all hate me
Sometimes I put in all my efforts, yet she still wouldn't date me
I lost faith, I lost fear, I lost love, I lost tears
I lost time, I lost peers and that was all within a year
But fuck it, you took your shots and I ducked it Could never fit in with the cool kids cause fake is always something I wasn' t
So turn your volume full blast man, I want you to hear it
I entered through your ear canal and intertwine with your spirit
They say the future can be scary, promise me you won't fear it
They said my dream was far fetched and yet I promise I'm near it
Now whats up

If you don't stop, nothings going to stop you
Why you going to waste, your only going to waste your time
Come on, come on
Never think that you can't do it
Get up, get up
What a better time than right now
What's your resolution
World talks, but they don't do shit
Come on, come on
Never think that you can't do it
Get up, get up
What a better time than right now

What's a follower know about following dreams
These all follow the crowd, those are following me
This is the land of the free, why you people afraid
Of confidence when they speak like they don't trust what they say
You ain't walking your words then you wasting your breath
You envision the worst and say you hope for the best
Big dreams for tomorrow and regrets for the past
Chew more than you could swallow then wait till you gag
Setting goals so big, without a real plan you ain't never gon' win
You know it how feels when you saying "I quit"
You see somebody win, now you feeling like shit
You want to see em' fail cause they doing what you didn't do
Thinking woulda coulda shoulda, but you never made a move
Uh, I'm saying get up off your ass right now
Cause tomorrow ain't promised, I say that without a doubt boy

If you don't stop, nothings going to stop you
Why you going to waste, your only going to waste your time
Come on, come on
Never think that you can't do it
Get up, get up
What a better time than right now
What's your resolution
World talks, but they don't do shit
Come on, come on

Never think that you can't do it
Get up, get up
What a better time than right now

When these lights fade and seem to get dark
And the people that you love, they pull the strings of your heart
As you look around this crowd you barely know who you are
See all you want to do is change, but you don't know where to start
You dig deep, you see your mind, body, soul as a key
And if you step back for a second, take a look you can see
That you will never be alone because you always have me
But who do I have when the buzz dies and all y'all leave
Damn
