

Come Around

Wiz Khalifa

Oh, oh
Ho, ho
Don't be so emotional
Woah, oh, oh

When the lights go off and it all falls down
I'll be in another state, I'll be in another town
You was so lost girl now you say that you're found
Let me up anytime you come around
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches

You ain't losing when you choosing on a real one
If they get too emotional, then I don't deal with 'em
See, you get way too comfortable, they think you live with 'em
They try to take all of your time and deal with 'em
See, you get way too comfortable, they think you live with them
They try to take all your time, ain't tryna chill with them
I'm getting back to my dawg, relaxing and smoke
You say that it's love, you acting fasho
I'm stacking this bread and asking for head
Just spending this cash, I'm [?]
We fuck on the couch, we [?] in the bed
I think I'm the best, I'm working so hard, I ain't getting rest
You you cuffing these hoes, they running [?]
Fuck with me, 'cause I make you comfortable
Do that for each and every one of you
Thank all of you for coming through
No emotions, that's my number one rule
Say I'm a dog, and I'm just like the rest
Get them a home, put them all to the test
They looking at me like [?]
I fuck with you now, don't get [?]

When the lights go off and it all falls down
I'll be in another state, I'll be in another town
You was so lost girl now you say that you're found
Let me up anytime you come around
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
Just know that all them games, all them games
I don't play those bitches
