

Movie Role

Wiz Khalifa

Mm-hmm (Come on, man)
Yeah, you know what I'm talkin' about (You heard me?)
For real, man (You can't even see what I see, dawg)
What's happenin', man?
Oh, man (One Sledgren beat a day is guaranteed to keep my paper straight)

Up and down and up and down before
Hit me up, she got good 'mount for sure
I got KK when your pack is low
So hot every day, I'm movin' slow
This is my real life, no movie role
Bling-bling-blaow, that's how my jewelry go

Ballin' on all you niggas like I'm tryna win a Superbowl
Lotta y'all just some suckers, y'all be talkin', I ain't cool with those Fuck around if I write, twenty thousand if you do my clothes (You heard me?)
More [?] on the way and we got tennis in the pool for sure
Might pull up to [?], order quick and get my food to go
[?] filet, don't forget the lobster tacos (Ah, get my order right, leave it)
I'm with the same niggas from before because we never fold
Family over everything, stay Taylor Gang, you know the code
Call Balenciaga, might go hoodie shoppin' when it's closed
In love with my Ferrari, I might put the top up when it's cold

Up and down and up and down before
Hit me up, she got good 'mount for sure
I got KK when your pack is low
So hot every day, I'm movin' slow
This is my real life, no movie role
Bling-bling-blaow, that's how my jewelry go

All of my joints real fat, all of my kush is gas
All of my people follow me when I take 'em down that path
All of my niggas smoking 'cause they know I'm rolling fast
I'll take it personal, don't even like me and turnin' right into a fan
I'm way too busy to try to lay down, I'ma prolly go get me a bag
Run when you're [?] party and spendin', I prolly go kick it in France
Wonderin' how I miss so much this shit 'cause I'm always the one in demand
Even in countries they don't let me smoke and I'm prolly gon' smoke in advance
Niggas don't know how to keep it one hundred, I'm watching my hands
Sing me a song, I say I put it on, but I'm not finna plant
Niggas be off then they on, I'ma bust it for life like a player
You can keep workin' as hard as you want and it might not appear

Up and down and up and down before
Hit me up, she got good 'mount for sure
I got KK when your pack is low
So hot every day, I'm movin' slow
This is my real life, no movie role
Bling-bling-blaow, that's how my jewelry go
