

Father To Son

Wizard

My wife is beautiful and strong
What we have waited for so long
Came true this night, I am blowing my horn
Because in darkness you were born

I'll teach you everything I know
To handle weapons, axe and bow
I'll show you tricks no one believes
And you will learn all deadly moves

I'm proud of you, my only son
Today your life has just begun
You'll have to swim through seas of blood
Enemies are waiting

I'm proud of you, my only son
Today your life has just begun
You'll have to swim through seas of blood
Enemies will die

Fight, kill, win
In the name of your tribe

Don't think about a simple life
Through floods of blood you'll have to dive
I love you son, needless to say
And I will lead you all the way

I am the king of our tribe
I will be always by your side
Our faith has been fulfilled by you
I will protect you, yes that's true
