

A magical place, a place of power
It rushed through my veins
Next to you grows a burning flower
What could this sign imply?

Never seen before
But I'm not afraid!
I hold you in my hand
The beauty of steel!

Fire sword, fire sword
Fate called my name, a gift from the gods
Fire sword, fire sword
The magic of steel, destroyer of hordes
Fire sword, fire sword
The eyes of the ones above are watching over us

It clings to the hand like my leather glove
I feel the strength of the fire in me
A stroke of luck to find you, lead by the gods in the sky

I feel even more of the magic
The red glowing blade
Forged in the fire of Death Mountain

Fire sword, fire sword
Fate called my name, a gift from the gods
Fire sword, fire sword
Redemption and power! Burning weapon!
Fire sword, fire sword
The breath of the higher one watches over us

I hold you strong in my hands
The beauty of steel, the karmic wheel!
I feel more of the magic
The fire glowing blade
Is my fate!
