

A hero was born
A brother died last night!
The magic goes on
Forever in my heart!

You were the grip of my sword
A believer and dreamer!
A die hard metal lord!

We were united on the road
Like molten steel
Never thought that it could end

Today I have to say goodbye!
Hold you guitar high!
We will meet again
Your spirit will remain!

Today I have to say goodbye
My heart still wants to cry!
I raise my glass to you
I know you raise yours, too!

For power and steel, a fighter for
The cause, a brave whirlewolf, for real!
I still see your smile in front of me
I still feel so close to you!

Today I have to say goodbye!
Hold on to memories!
We will meet again
On a different stage!

Today I have to say goodbye!
My heart still wants to cry!
I raise my glass to you
I know you raise yours, too!

Our brotherhood began many years ago
It ends on earth right now
Forever in my mind
Forever in my heart!
