Oh my baby sais she likes me (likes me, likes me) and I think that's all right and my baby sais she needs me (needs me, needs me)
in the middle of the night all right, so my baby sais she wants me (wants me, wants me) and I know that's all right and she sais she wants be near me (near me, near me) every day and night (every day and night) But sometimes she drives me crazy and I know it's something sad (I know, I know) but my baby's got a habit
she really gets me mad when she's fighting and again and again My baby loves to argue (argue, argue)
in the middle of the night
Every time I'm really tired (tired, tired) she feels like picking up the fight
in the middle of the night She don't need reasons (reasons, reasons) is she whatever comes away and she can take it on forever and ever (and ever) until the dawn of day
'til I just wanna be stay out of my way Yes sometimes she drives me crazy
and I know it's something sad (I know, I know)
but my baby's got a habit
she really gets me mad when she's fighting and again and again She's sorry my baby sais she likes me (likes me, likes me)
and I think that's all right
close by her side and I think that's alright having her by my side Baby loves to argue
in the middle of the night
Every time I'm really tired (tired, tired)
she feels like picking up the fight
in the middle of the night
Yes sometimes she drives me crazy
and I know it's something sad (I know, I know) but my baby's got that habit
she really gets me mad when she's fighting and again and again
Please Misses Pickafight
do some pick another fight
in the middle of the night
Please Misses Pickafight
Baby please don't pick a fight in the middle of the night
