

30 Days

WizTheMc

30 more days
Then our first breakup
Was a year ago
Fairy tales of all the things we yell
When the neighbors sleep
It was your first time to love someone
And it felt like it was mine as well
Didn't know a thing or how to act
Called my mom right after we met

Told her I'm in love with someone new
Someone who could see me in the ways I never knew
Was possible
Your love was possible

Its 7 over here
But its the west coast
You probably asleep
You planted all these seeds
Now I can't rest cause I want to be
With you
(But I can't I can't)
With you
One more one more time

30 more days
Then I pack my bags
And I'll go back home
I don't know when we will cross paths
For now its unknown
I hope you found someone
You can be true with
Hope your love is fucking foolish
Want the best
For you and yours
Cause I remember what I said

Told her I'm in love with someone new
Someone who could see me in the ways I never knew
Was possible
Your love was possible

Its 7 over here
But its the west coast
You probably asleep
You planted all these seeds
Now I can't rest cause I want to be
With you
(But I can't I can't)
With you

30 more days
Then our first breakup
