

Summertime and she was like
"Meet me at the spot we like"
I fantasized way too much
Maybe I was just in love
A little high and a little drunk
You by my side, said I am fun
I just smiled, looked at the sun
I just smiled

She used to know me, but now she's lonely
And all her friends done tried to call me
But time has passed and so did I
Now all that's left is my own life

Don't like the way you talk nowadays
Don't fight the wave, your heart's gon' break
Don't like the way you talk nowadays
Don't fight the wave, your heart's gon' break (Yeah)

I have no apologies, I said what I had to Meant it when I spoke
Don't be mad when they ask you
Got cash from the last shoot
And you're sad in the bathroom
I'm working on my dreams
Wouldn't care if I had you
I changed my flight so I wouldn't be around
Changed the time and every single sound
Never been more in tune and around
My own life
Wanna scream, wanna shout

She used to know me, but now she's lonely
And all her friends done tried to call me
But time has passed and so did I
Now all that's left is my own life

Don't like the way you talk nowadays
Don't fight the wave, your heart's gon' break
Don't like the way you talk nowadays
Don't fight the wave, your heart's gon' break

Gon' break, your heart's gon' break
Gon' break, your heart's gon' break
Gon' break, your heart's gon' break
It's gon' break, it's gon' break, yeah
