Circles

WizTheMc

Welcome
Breathe in

I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life
I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life

Just wanted you for this life
I'm coming through in the night
She gonna lose it if I say I'll do this music for life
I'm gonna do it or die trying
Shoot for the right ones
Saving my time so I can spend it with loved ones
Time just go, I might be close
Fight it 'til their eyes not closed
I light the dough
Tell me where their hearts is open
Far too focused
Where the fuck should I be going?
Walking slowly

I'm way too drunken
Something is up
My heart started jumping
Wanting your love
Yeah, baby, I want it
No assumption, I run it
Hmm, can I be your honey?

I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life
I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life

Sometimes the light don't come how you like it
I'll find the time for you and for money
Sometimes the light don't come how you like it
I'll find the time for you and for money
I'll leave it up for no surprise
But I signed up to feel it all
Wanted to stay
But all the pain got in the way
That's why I'm going, yeah
Focused on my road
I'll let it all go
See where it'll take me
Yeah, I'm ready to explore

I'm way too drunken
Wanting your love
Hmm, can I be your honey?

I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
I wanted you for this life
I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life

I'm running circles inside
Putting my life on the line
Don't tell me you ain't got time
I wanted you for this life
