

City

WizTheMc

How the fuck am I complaining
When I could've stayed at home
I took that plane by choice
No one told me that I should go
Found myself in the noise
The city makes me feel grown
The city has no pity
If you can't grow
It's cold
We need to go
My phone is getting old
Like all my fucking bros
Always overseas
But never been more close
Came here
To show the world
I got NOHOMES
Crew full of solos
Rocking polo's and
Copping more dope
Was with my mom
When they start to ask for photos
I'm small town nigga
Salt city where we local
Prefer girls
Who shine forreal
Not only in photos
Raspy voice
'Cause I don't know
How to use my vocals
I try to focus
But I'm never satisfied
With what I'm coming up
Haven't even started
And they telling me I'm coming up
City so fast
And every nigga rap
I ain't even frontin
But most of them really got no plan

Really got no plan

City had me cold
City had me crying
City had me fall in love
A couple times
City is my home
The city on the rise
Maybe it's the city
Wheres I'll see your eyes

City had me cold
City had me crying
A couple times
City full of hope
The city on the rise

Maybe it's the city
Wheres I'll see your eyes

Who the fuck am I doing this for
Used to make a song a day
But now I'm lost in the forest
With all the trees that I'm blowing
With all the peace in the moment
Give me more peace of mind
'Cause I need me more piece for the road
I seek to please Your soul
I see you need a role
And yeah I can be there
No need to be alone
Yeah
No need to be alone

Still learning how to cope
Had to change my expectations
Just to go
Always thinking that I'm moving
When I don't
Love to learn
But all these lessons
Coming cold
Lessons come and go
Hope you grow
With them
I hope you grow
Hope you grow
With them
I hope you grow
City makes me feel grown

City had me cold
City had me crying
City had me fall in love
A couple times
City is my home
The city on the rise
Maybe it's the city
Wheres I'll see your eyes

City had me cold
City had me crying
City had me fall in love
A couple times
City full of hope
The city on the rise
Maybe it's the city
Wheres I'll see your eyes
